Multiple Scoregasms hit Double Bankers this round. 2-1 Arsenal, and 2-1 Newcastle built a very strong score of 83.27

MullenVoid Enhanced Forest’s win. They banked on Brighton which did some damage, but held on to second best in the round.

McGinn & Tonic also banked on Forest.

Got Palace wrong, but picked up enough points elsewhere to just finish in third place.

The Grooneys stay out in front. 58 Years Of Hurt stay ahead of 2 T’Wire who moved up into third.

We’re heading round the final bend now.

Heading into the home straight, still wide open, would think any of the top dozen are in the hunt.

9 Rounds left to play.

Big points, and some big moves in The Picks. Two rounds of EFL, and huge points from Cup Games, in particular Real Sociedad, whose win in 90 minutes at Madrid gave loads of points to the top four this round.

And, the lead has changed hands again, real nip and tuck up at the summit.

Big climbs for You'll Never Guess Alone and The Sedgley Stalker.

With more cup games in Europe this week, there could be further big scores coming.... Watch this space

Expect a lot more movement before the end of the season.
