

Season 25/26 - Round 36

Out of the 119 Bankers, 65 WRONG AGAIN

There was 1 correct Guaranteed scores, and 4 Enhanced, that's all

The Mad Hatters topped and would have been even further ahead if they hadn't got a banker wrong

Multiple Scoregasms got three correct scores to come second, it's moving them slowly but surely up the table, as they add to the last few good weeks.

The average was a shade under 14 though, as it seemed a tricky round for most, as the top of the table scores showed.

Average for the Round = 13.35 - 12 had Minus scores, the worst being -21.36	Score	The Mad Hatters	Multiple Scoregasms	Sutton Who ???	Lady Harney Of Yanchep

Out in front the lead was cut by a further 7.69 points, and now stands at 89 points for No Trophy Wife.

As mentioned previously there isn't massive gaps between the rest of the top of the table which means a decent round for anyone can drive them up the table.

Wigstow Rovers climbed 5 places, Addicks Fan climbed 8 places due to good rounds.

The full table is on the website, if like me you're not on this table, or the top half on

The POTR was again uninspiring this round, no-one really 'performing', resulting in very little difference between all the players, and Soucek just coming out on top for the 7 that picked him

Two more fell off the perch in The Last Player Standing competition as 17 have now dropped out of the running.

On The Edge and Red Dogs were the latest to fall.

Gonna Get Messi just survived, again.

There's two more this round leaving the competition, and then from Round 38, it's going to increase to three per round.

All the way through until R51, leaving 7 in Round 52.

On to The Picks.

THE LAST PLAYER STANDING 15 of the 69 Out so far

Time to name and shame us, as we exit the Last Player Standing Competition, because let's face it, our GuessWork was Shite....

There were some good scores this round, with a number breaking the three hundred mark.

Not a Spartan round then.

Pick points are made up from all the pre-season league teams you picked, and the players you have in your Fantasy Team

If your cup teams stay in their competitions, then they start to score big points as they progress through the rounds and can make a huge difference to your final position.

R34 takes us up to 4043 games played so far, yielding the points won in the Picks competition.

430 Of these have been games that have made up 'The 12' as well, and all the points we have won, or not, in those games

Lard Lovers XI stretched their lead a bit further this round, they are now 140 ahead of the pack.

It's a midweek of lower league games until we get to a full program at the weekend.

Both the top teams picked up the same points from the games as last season

Chelsea dropped more, they've now dropped 13 this season, and if the league finished today would be in 10th place.

Liverpool improved slightly, winning at Forest.

The full table is how the league would look, if it ended 'NOW'. The table to the right, shows the teams change from last season to this.

R37 is needed Friday, before 5PM, as there is a Friday night game, and it's on the website NOW

But, don't worry, I will chase you. You know I will
